HON. B. K. BRUCE.

EX-SENATOR BRUCE WILL SPEAK.

Hon. B. K. Bruce, of this city left last Thursday for Cranston, N. J., where he will deliver the first speech of the campaign, so far as Afro-Americans are concerned, under the auspices of the National Republican committee, which has concluded that it was necessary to appease the dissatisfaction that is so prevalent throughout the country among the colored voters, on account of the laxity of the republican managers. Mr. Bruce will receive a great ovation in New Jersey and it will be one of the largest receptions from reports, that has ever been given to a representative Afro-American. Mr. Bruce will speak to the solid men of New Jersey for McKinley and Hobart.

THEY SAY.

The boys are still waiting.
Look out for bogus advertising agents.

The colored democrats number about fifteen in this town.

There are some people in this town who think that they know it all.

Let those who are brave say what they think.

The e is not a satisfied politician in this country.

We mean Afro-American politicians.

They are old timers and apologists.

Col. M. M. Holland is too busy to enter the campaign.

Yes and there are others in the same boat.

The campaign is getting along within the colored brother, but he will not say so.

Those who have been paid to work need not expect any consideration.

The colored editors are working with vengeance.

When will Afro Americans unite and defend their interests?

The race is being sacrificed by cowardly leaders.

They all want an office, but they will get left.

Let the colored man get down to business and support their own institutions.

Business around the police court is very dull.

The man who said that he was going to distribute the funds for the colored papers is still in the soup.

Washington is famous for a dumping ground of interlopers.

Every convict comes to this town attempts to chastise the citizens.

The racial ties are not drawn tightly enough.

The Wayland Seminary will be a great institution soon.

We need such men on the bench as Judges Taylor and Scott.

The people want a change in our present form of government.

Let there be union among us.

The Capital Savings Bank is a great institution and the people ought to support it.

There will be no change in the school board until after the election.

McKinley will be elected without the aid of colored politicians and yet they are afraid to say so.

Count T. L. Jones who has the air of Chesterfield is all right.

Jones has a winning way about him.

THE BEE is in the lead and all others follow.

There are several organizations in this town, running for glory.

Charles R. Douglass' telegram to Major McKinley is printed in full in many thousand documents.

It is short and sweet and don't you forget it.

If you want to reach the colored people, advertise in THE BEE.

THE BEE has a BONA FIDE circulation.

Remember your friends and treat them right.

Dorsey Seville has won in his great fight.

He has revolutionized Negro Masonry in the District of Columbia.

He has broken up the rings and placed Negro Masonry upon a higher basis.

Be truthful in your dealings with your fellow man.

Our New York correspondent sends a breezy letter about the annex.

Those colored orators who are so anxious to show their teeth and expand their lungs, will no doubt be called soon. Chairman Hanna is making his selection.

Ex-Congressman Lynch has become disgusted and gone home to ascertain the reason why his name was stricken from the voting list. Col. James Hill is playing politics with a vengeance. The result will be that he will be a white leadership in Mississippi.

If the Hon. John R. Lynch and Col. James Hill could be convinced that it was necessary for them to kiss and make up, perhaps Mississippi politics would be immortalized.

If Trustee B. K. Bruce could only be convinced that the colored High School is greatly in need of a head, THE BEE, as well as the people would be satisfied.

If Chairman Mark A. Hanna doesn't hurry up and call on these tired politicians in the campaign he will have them to bury.

THE BEE is an American citizen and not a colored American. The colored-American died when the Afro-American was introduced.

THE WASHINGTON BEE reaches every respectable person in this city. Everybody reads THE BEE because it is the only paper in the city that does not change its politics every time a $10 bill is in sight.

THE WASHINGTON BEE is the only Afro-American journal in the city.

There is a colored American in this city who used to be a policy writer at Indianapolis, Ind. That accounts for his slickness. He has been playing policy on the people of this city for three years. His number has been 4 I take 0 you make.

AFRO-AMERICAN LEAGUES.

Day by day the propriety of organizing Afro-American leagues is growing in popular favor. The letter of Mr. James L. Goode, of Pennsylvania, informs us that he has a league of 5,000 members in his state and that he endorses the suggestions of THE BEE to have leagues immediately organized in every town, city and state. This is the time for Afro-Americans to decide whether they are men or pygmies. It is evident that it is the desire of some white men to ignore the colored man, but, it should not be done without a struggle. In this city there is a disposition on the part of a few white republicans to organize separate republican clubs and control the patronage in the event of Major McKinley's election. Already plans are laid and subterfuges inaugurated to relegate to the rear men who have held the republican party together for years. It is said that the present political struggle is to establish a money basis or standard in this country. What bosh this is. It is nothing but the struggle of parties to control the government for official recognition. When you hear of a politician asserting that he does not want an office, you can just say that he is telling an untruth. On the other hand there is a struggle among Afro-American representatives for leadership. One faction pushing the claims of some white man thus subordinating his own interest. We need strong Afro-American leagues in every state in the Union. Let Fortune lead.

MON. PARK AGNEW

Hon. Park Agnew, one of the most active republicans in the State of Virginia, is working like a Turk to elect Hon. Pat McCall in the Eighth Congressional District and to elect McKinley electors. Mr. Agnew is a man of push and nerve and if his advice had been followed in former campaigns in the State the republican party would be stronger today. However, he is making a gallant fight, and if McKinley electors are not elected it will not be Mr. Agnew's fault. Under Mr. Harrison's administration this distinguished Virginian made one of the hardest fights ever known in the State. Mr. Agnew is a leader and has the happy faculty of causing men to follow him.

J. L. CRUPPER, ESQ.

One of the most active politicians in the State of Virginia and a man who is doing effective work for Mr. Pat McCall and Major McKinley is J. L. Crupper, Esq., the city chairman of the republican party in Alexandria, Va. Mr. Crupper is a wide awake man who has the respect and confidence of the party managers in the State of Virginia. He has great hopes of reducing the democratic vote in the Eighth Congressional District.

All great men are abused.

The greatest man among them who have opinions of their own.

HON. POWELL CLAYTON.

Our New York correspondent seems to blame Chairman Hanna and Col. Clayton for the non-election of colored orators in the campaign, who have no more to do with the selection of speakers than the editor of this paper. Hon. Powell Clayton has full charge of the oratorical department or the selection of speakers where they have been called for by state committees. Mr. Clayton has done all in his power to have colored orators selected, but, the chairmen of state committees have made no call for colored speakers, and certainly Messrs. Hanna and Clayton are not to blame nor can they thrust colored speakers upon state committees who refuse to ask for them.

Col. Clayton is a simple, pure republican and a friend of Afro-Americans. We remember when Hon. B. K. Bruce served with Col. Clayton in the Senate, we had occasion to ask Mr. Bruce his opinion of certain senators and how he was treated by them. Among other things, Mr. Bruce said that Senator Clayton, who was then senator, was a thoroughbred republican and a staunch friend of the colored people, and a gentleman of the highest type, who knew no man by his color. This speaks well for a man who has been condemned by Afro-Americans because they have not been selected to enter the campaign. Ex-Senator Bruce at that time needed friends in the Senate, and he did not hesitate to say to the editor of this paper at that time that Col. Clayton was the colored man's friend. Colored republicans at Col. Clayton's home speak of him as a man who has always defended the interest of Afro-Americans. We understand again that certain state committees have recommended certain colored men and Col. Clayton has sent for them. If only half of the colored orators are like those who spoke in Virginia for Col. Pat McCall, it is no wonder state committees are careful whom they select.

This is the year for economic questions to be discussed, and unless men have studied these great questions it is all folly for them to kick. The day for bloody shirt speeches and bass drum oratory has passed into oblivion. Take a rest anxious orators, perhaps your services will be needed in the next

WHERE IS EUGENE BROADUS?

Information is wanted of the whereabouts of Eugene Broadus (colored), 30 years old, who was last heard from in Washington, D. C., in 1895. Write to his brother, John Broadus, Colfax, Iowa, Sept. 5-6 t.

century, and by that time you will have understood the money question.

The colored politicians ardor has been cooled a little.

Some of the colored politicians have gone into the canvass, and others are waiting to go.

Colored ministry in the District of Columbia has been revolutionized.

The spell has been broken and the colored politician has been given a little soothing syrup. He will suck the tit a few days away.

The management of THE WASHINGTON BEE begs to announce to the public that a fine Inaugural Guide will be issued under the direction of Messrs. Chase and Peterson, on or about March 1st 1897. It will be the greatest enterprise ever inaugurated by Afro-Americans. Full particulars in a few days.

THE OLD NEGRO'S PRAYER.

The colored voters may not be able to understand all that is said about free coinage of silver, but they are loyal to the government of the United States. They will vote with the party of Lincoln, and Grant, and Garfield, and Sumner.

The following prayer, uttered by a pious colored brother at Fairfax Court House, Va., is in order. It is commended to the doubting Thomases of all parties.

"Lord, save this country from the hands of them who is tryin' to bust it up. Give us plenty of work and good money for it, so as we can take care of our wives and children and buy good bread and meat and pay for it. We want to keep pollyicks out of our church and out of our prayer-meetings, and we can't help askin' Thee to keep a lookout for that poor, miserable sinner, Bryan, who we hear, is comin' into this State, hand in hand with Satan. We ask Thee don't let him do no harm; and, if it ain't askin' too much, please forgive his sins that he is comittin' every day, and then knock the stufkin' out of him next November."

BUCKEYE REPUBLICAN.

W. H. DEWEY, BICYCLIST.

Mr. W. H. Dewey, the popular fast rider has one of the best appointed bicycle establishments in this city. His many friends and the general public will find him at 1109 L street northwest, where they can hire first-class bicycles cheaper than any other place known to the writer. HANNA'S MAN FRIDAY.

THE CHAIRMAN OF THE NATIONAL COMMITTEE SEEKS TO BE VINDICATED FOR DRAWING THE COLOR LINE.

Phil Brown was Selected for the Task.

An Insight into the Queer Methods of the National Committee—Some Political News of New York—Lyons a Failure—Is it true that No Negroes Need a Vote?—Why was "Col." Brown Sent For?

From The Bee's Special Correspondent.

New York, October 6.—At this writing there has been no recognition of the Negro as a political factor, and if anything appears out of the ordinary it seems that the brother in black is each day getting farther from the throne. The Afro-American headquarters in the Albany Club is running along and has thus far accomplished at least all of the personal correspondence of the "Preachers' Protective Political Union," over which the Rev. Dr. Lyons presides. Aside from this nothing has been done to educate the colored voters of the country, and the bad work still goes on.

There was a slight stir in political circles last week when an interview appeared in one or two of the morning papers of this city. This interview came from the National Committee, ostensibly from his royal highness, Marcus Aurelius Hanna, $1,000, who has been more or less inappropriately designated to run the campaign for the republicans. The chairman indulged in the proverbial "jolly" that he had a high regard for the Negroes as a people, that he loved them—oh, so much, and that he was sure that they would all vote the republican ticket because he first loved them. Old politicians grinned knowingly as they read the interview and winked the other eye, for aside from the stereotyped expressions of the politicians it was apparent that Phil Brown, so recently thrust into politics, had placed his hand in it. Brown is a sort of professional politician who stands ready to write anything or say or do anything for which he gets paid.

When the campaign was in its infancy Mr. Hanna presupposed that it could be conducted without the aid of the Negroes, and he accordingly portioned them off where he hoped that they would be so far removed from the general activity of the Republican National Committee that there would be no black faces contrasting with the immaculate marble walls of the Metropolitan Life Building, where the committee is situated.

Brother Hanna reckoned without his host, for the moment it became known that the chairman had raised the color line by placing the Negroes in Thirty-first street there was an ominous yell from the colored people of all classes. Mark was worried. The colored press throughout the country was poking fun at Lyons, the preacher Hanna had selected to run the campaign for the Negroes and there was existing everywhere evidences of dissatisfaction. Then there was a happy thought. He would be interviewed.

A messenger was sent out and in a short time a short, fat young man came waddling up the hall strenuously endeavoring to look important. This youth was "Col." Phil Brown, the over-able manager of the Afro-American Associated Press, and has been looked upon as Mark's man Friday. Brown puffed and bluffed like a big steam engine, and was immediately ushered into Mr. Hanna's private room.

Up to this time it has been pretty generally known that Mr. Brown has entertained and expressed some very radical views against Dr. Lyon and his separate headquarters. He had thought that Brother Lyon was "unpractical," and he at one time said that the preacher-politician was "an ecclesiastical nonentity whose mental ability was quartered with his kicking capacity—in his heels."

The Hanna interview appeared, however, with a long, apologetic introduction from Brown. "Brother Lyons is all right," wrote this changeable young man, "and if he is not, Mr. Hanna is not to blame." Then he launched into a long laudatory story of how his master, Hanna, loved the Negroes.

The fact remains, nevertheless, that Hanna has drawn the color line and no amount of apology from Brown will alter this fact. Everybody is wondering why Phil Brown was selected to vindicate Hanna, and more dissension has been stirred up on this account.

OUR WOMEN.

Mrs. E. V. C. Williams, Editor.

He was born in Charleston, S. C. and was 60 years old. He was the servant of Gen. Beauregard before the war and was subsequently placed as a servant of Mrs. Jefferson Davis.

Mr. McGinnis was a good Christian man who loved his church. He was buried in Baltimore from his residence at 417 West Biddle street Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Hillside Happenings.

Mrs. S. G. Brown has left the village for an indefinite stay in New York city. Her co-workers in the church will greatly miss her valuable assistance.

Mr. Andrew Jackson, a local exhorter, was buried from the church at 5:30 and P. N. W.

The funeral of Mr. Delaney from Allen chapel, last Tuesday, was attended by an immense concourse from Garfield and Hillside. His death, after a long illness borne with Christian fortitude, is greatly mourned by his relatives and numerous friends.

And now comes the complaint that the gas motor cars will make too much noise. One would think that in the eventuality of rapid transit a little noise might be overlooked. But since the inalienable right to kick is the only one we have, in reason it should be exercised.

The pleasing rumor is ripe that Wayland college is to be located in our midst. Let us hope as we welcome anything which is calculated to stimulate our intellectual and moral growth: but no graveyards if you please.

A great many people remember with regret the old Pioneer Institute. It did excellent work for our young men and women and consequently for the entire community. Nothing which makes for the moral welfare of our youth can well be spared, and THE BEE calls upon Mr. S. G. Brown and fellow laborers for a revival of Pioneer, or if not tell us why not.

Last Sunday, Rev. Jos. Matthews baptized one candidate, Miss Bundy, in the Eastern Branch, at Poplar Point.

Miss E. Lucas paid a flying visit to the village this week, before her friends knew she was here she had gone.

Mr. D. C. Ray, of the government printing office has been unable to go to his office for several days. We are glad to record his complete recovery.

Rev. Aldridge, pastor of Campbells A. M. E. church, has had considerable illness in his family recently. Happily the indisposition has been slight.

The members of Bethlehem Baptist church partook of Holy Communion last Sunday at 8 o'clock. Rev. Matthews, assisted by Rev. Harrod, celebrated.

We should like to have a sermon by one of our local preachers on "Practical Christianity". We would be pleased to publish such a sermon.

Subscribe to THE BEE, or buy it of the Misses Banks. Pay your debts. Pray for McKinley's success, and be happy.

Everyone who needs instruction in the branches taught in the night schools, should attend. There is no disgrace in the lack of knowledge; but in the lack of the desire to acquire it.

Come to 1109 I street northwest, on legal business, the attorney and notary public can be found there.

Messrs. W. Morton, J. W. Lewis and J. N. Adams, members of the McKinley and Hobart Republican Campaign Working club have gone on the stump.

Miss R. T. Londers, of New York city, left for her home last Tuesday.

Miss Virgie Simms has returned from Pittsburgh, Pa.

Mr. J. B. Dillard has a fine store at 13th and C streets, northeast.

Miss Jennie Watkins, a Normal graduate, would make an excellent teacher.

A SAD ACCIDENT.

Mr. Frederick McGinnis, of Baltimore, Md., father of Mrs. Geo. H. Lee and Miss Emma McGinnis of this city, was killed on last Sunday night by a train on the Western Maryland railroad. Mr. McGinnis was on his way from church when he was struck and instantly killed by a passing train.

were worthy of imitation by the women of today. Our eulogy should be in action, rather than in words. As the first woman to represent us at the Court of France, and England, as well as the first lady of the White House at Washington, she honored that womanhood we ever delight to honor." She closed her extemporaneous remarks with an original poem, which, with other matter pertinent to the occasion, was written on parchment and put into the corner stone. Hon. Charles Francis Adams, president of the Massachusetts Historical Society, in the most extended address, gave the raison d'être of the occasion. He, as well as Mayor C. F. Adams, who opened the exercises with appropriate remarks, were descendants of Abigail and John Quincy Adams, the boy. Historic stones, brought from near and far, were used by those bringing them for the making of the cairn."

Miss Caps expresses herself as being pleased with her new work and the city. It is a new departure and a hopeful sign for our girls to leave their beautiful homes, relatives and friends and identify themselves with teaching in a missionary school. Most work of this kind has been left for some one else to do. We hope that others will realize that there are open doors awaiting them outside of the large cities.

As an item of information we give the various departments of the University of Pennsylvania: Department of philosophy, department of law, department of medicine, auxiliary department of medicine, the Wistar Institute of anatomy, the laboratory of hygiene, the department of dentistry, the department of veterinary medicine, the department of music, the museum archaeology and paleontology, and the department of physical education. Women are permitted to matriculate having equal facilities with men. Although this school was founded in 1740 it was not until 1891 that its doors were thrown open to women; then Col. Joseph M. Bennett endowed a graduate school for women. There is also a school for nurses in the university hospital. Besides a splendid library and museum.

The First of the Kind Among Colored Masons in the U. S.

The sovereign college of allied Masonic degrees for North America filed articles of incorporation. The objects are to have jurisdiction over the degrees of ark mariner, secret monitor, knights of constantine, knights of three kings, knights of christian mark, knights of the holy sepulchre, holy and illustrious order of the cross, and such degrees as the faculty may add from time to time. Also to encourage the members in making Masonic researches, the diffusing of charity and the performing of such acts for the advancement of the college as the faculty may see fit to do from time to time. The faculty is composed of the following well known Masons: Sovereign grand master, Rite Rev. C. W. Newton, D. D., Jacksonville, Ill.; deputy grand master, John G. Jones, Chicago, Ill.; grand abbot, Rev. Peter Lucas, D. D., Washington, D. C.; senior grand warden, J. T. Fortune, Virginia; junior grand warden, John N. Adams, Maryland; grand almoner, O. R. King, M. D., Maryland; grand registrar general, D. F. Seville, Washington, D. C.; grand master of finance, G. W. Cooper, Jacksonville, Ill. The college will convene annually. This college will be conducted on the same principle as the Royal Alpha Lodge of England. It has the honor of being the first of the kind among the colored brethren of this country. For further particulars address Rev. C. W. Newton, D. D., Jacksonville, Ill. or D. F. Seville, Washington, D. C.

SAP HEADED DUDES.

There was a large audience at the Fifth Baptist church on last Monday evening. Prof. W. C. Jacques, the great colored artist, lectured and among other things he paid his respects to "sap headed dudes," or men who have women to support them while they are on a sporting expedition. His hearers were composed of some of the best known people in the city. For two hours, Prof. Jacques kept the audience in a continuance of laughter.

Rev. Geo. W. Lee had a fine picture of himself presented to him on this occasion, drawn by Prof. Jacques, which demonstrated the skill and ingenuity of the artist. The picture was an exact likeness of Rev. Lee.

KIDNAPPED

Is rather a strange heading in these days, while decidedly common not so very many years gone by. A deeply interesting recital of the experiences of a young girl, kidnapped at five years of age and kept for thirteen years in utter ignorance of her home and friends, will be heard on Tuesday evening, Oct. 27, at the Metropolitan A. M. E. church, on the occasion of the Benefit concert to be given at that time and place in aid of Miss Lillian Z. Dailey. As our advertising column show there other attractions if this is not enough, culled from the best entertainers that our District affords.

We heartily urge and advise the patronage of the community for this most worthy object. Not from a sentimental or romantic standpoint but because it is needed. Miss Dailey was restored to her home through the financial aid of San Francisco citizens, as the circumstances of those to whom she was to be restored did not allow even that they could raise funds to send for her. The mother worn down by years of toil, travail and distress, is now in a hospital, and the girl herself without means to assist her and keep her up while looking for the means of self-support. Let us not be outdone by San Francisco. It would be indeed a shame that strangers should do more for our own than ourselves.
